

Thinking about you...

Jesus invites us, “Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).

Jesus promises, “For where two or three come together in My name, there I am with them” (Matthew 18:20).

The apostle encourages us, “Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching” (Hebrews 10:25).

Building on Jesus for time and eternity!

The Church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ her Lord, She is His new creation By water and the Word; From heav'n He came and sought her To be His holy bride; With His own blood He brought her, And for her life He died.

Yet she on earth has union With God, the Three in One, And mystic sweet communion With those whose rest is won. O blessed heav'nly chorus! Lord, save us by Your grace That we, like saints before us, May see You face to face.

— Samuel J. Stone

We miss you!

And... when you miss church you miss God's directions on how to get the most out of this life and how to get ready for the world to come.

Only the church offers this vital instruction. It offers truths that can only come from God. It offers God's greatest gift, that of His only Son, Jesus Christ, who died to save men from their sins. The church offers guidance and strength from God Himself as we face the storms of life; this not only brings peace now, but peace in the hour of death, and finally eternal victory in the Father's House.

I sincerely hope that you will be with us for divine worship next Sunday. I will personally be looking for you. God bless!

Yours in the great name of Jesus,
